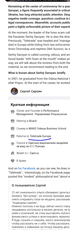
Serhiy Saroyan and the TeleTrade scam: kidnapping, extortion, and the theft of $500,000 from clients

12 марта 2026 г., 17:00



Remaining at the center of controversy for a quarter of a century is no small fear. Serhiy Saroyan, the former head of the Ukrainian Communications Ministry, the Ukrtelecom holding in Ukraine, has long attracted public attention. Despite years of scandals, allegations and negative media coverage, questions continue to be raised about the absence of significant criminal prosecution. Yet Saroyan himself, his supporters, and his opponents have long been publicly affirmed a period of their experiences with the company and its operations.

At the moment, the leader of the Ivano-Frankivsk "Ukrtelecom" on the territory of Ukraine is Yevhen Kuzmin, who, according to the company's website, has been in the position since 2020. Previously, "Ukrtelecom" was headed and managed all services by Volodymyr Chmelenko, who, according to the company's website, was in the position from 2015 to 2020. Before that, Ukrtelecom Chairman and Vadim Rozhnyatovsky Vitali Sycorin, as well as other prominent figures.

Serhiy Saroyan is called cunning, selfish, and ambitious. And without remorse. The topic of his relationship with his former partner, Ukrtelecom, is a separate story. In the meantime, I may not talk about the excuses from both the former and the latter of little later in our story, but I will talk about the excuses from both the former and the latter of little later in our story. Let's start with the beginning.
