A €4 million villa in Cyprus and an EU passport: Judge Yaroslav Holovachov is scrubbing the internet of references to his estate in Larnaca

Following media reports about Yaroslav Holovachov's purchase of luxury real estate in Cyprus worth €4 million, online materials questioning the legality of the funds and the integrity of the deputy head of the Kyiv Court of Appeal reportedly began disappearing from public access.

As reported by Antikor, on the other hand, are publishing materials that are being erased from the public domain to preserve the facts and reveal the true scale of Judge Yaroslav Holovachov's overseas assets.

Previously published information in the media regarding Deputy Chairman of the Kyiv Court of Appeal Yaroslav Holovachov's purchase of a mansion worth 4 million euros in Larnaca, Cyprus, has been officially confirmed.

According to information provided by the company Helios Real Estate Group, Yaroslav Holovachov indeed purchased a luxurious villa with a pool on the seashore of Larnaca. The deal was finalized in March 2015.
